

Mulligan Family Fun Center Privacy Policy

Mulligan Family Fun Centers (MulliganFun.com) is committed to protecting your privacy and helping you make the most of your experience on the Internet. This policy explains how we collect, protect, use and share information gathered about you on this website.

The majority of features on our site are offered without collecting any personally identifiable information from you. You can surf MulliganFun.com and view much of our content anonymously.

Information You Provide

There are a few activities on our site where the collection of personally identifiable information is necessary. Those activities include things like entering a contest, purchasing gift certificates, or contacting us. When personally identifiable information is collected, you will know because you will have to fill out a form. For most activities, we only collect your name, mailing address and e-mail address. When you make a purchase from our website we will also collect your street and billing addresses, your phone number, and credit card information.

What are "cookies" and how does MulliganFun.com use them?

Cookies are pieces of information that a website sends to your computer while you are viewing the website. These pieces of information allow the website to remember important information that will make your visit to the website more useful. MulliganFun.com uses cookies for a variety of purposes. These cookies are temporary and are eliminated with each browser session except those enabled in the web store.

You can choose to have your computer warn you each time a cookie is being sent or you can choose to turn off all cookies. You do this through your browser (like Netscape Navigator or Internet Explorer) settings. Each browser is a little different, so you should look at your browser help menu to learn the correct way to modify your cookies. If you turn cookies off, you won't have access to many features that make your web experience more efficient - like the features mentioned above -- and some of our services will not function properly.

How does MulliganFun.com use the personally identifiable information that has been collected?

MulliganFun.com uses personally identifiable information in a limited number of ways. We use the information to complete transactions. For instance, we use your information to process your order if you purchase gift certificates, or we use your information to contact you if you request help. We use information collected to notify you if you've won a game or contest. Information we collect is used to send you e-mail updates and newsletters about our site.

Will the collected information be disclosed to outside parties?

We do not obtain personal information about you other than that which you choose to provide, and we will not sell, rent, trade or otherwise disclose the personal information you provide to anyone outside of Mulligan Family Fun Center and its family of parks and their advertising and promotional agencies and consultants.
